

NHSAO
NATIONAL HISTORIC SITES ALLIANCE FOR ONTARIO

YOU'RE INVITED!

Where: Parkwood Estate NHS, Oshawa
270 Simcoe St. North, Oshawa, L1G 4T5

When: Wednesday, January 22nd, 2014

Time: 10:00am ~ 2:30pm

It's not too soon to talk about NHSAO's SesquiSensational 2017!

You are invited to take part in a strategic planning gathering for the National Historic Sites Alliance for Ontario. We challenge sites across Ontario to envision both their own sites and the collective community of sites to be front and centre in Canada's 2017 sesquicentennial celebrations.

Here's the deal:

- We ply you with refreshments and lunch (no cost).
- You share your early ideas and hopes (projects, programs, whatever), or if you haven't already thought about it, just provide feedback.
- You help identify ways the Alliance can foster your efforts, or suggest collaborative/collective approaches, and ultimately determine which member services should be added, subtracted or improved.

Why:

The vision of 2017 is a focal point that could direct our actions for the next 3 years. The NHSAO invites you to be a part of this vision and process. We want to know what you think, and what the NHSAO can do together to make you and the community around you "SesquiSensational".

Please RSVP by: Friday January 17, 2014 to register
